

This notice is to inform the public that the Murray Hillside Historic District, nominated by the State Historic Preservation Review Board and the Utah State Historic Preservation Officer, was officially listed on the National Register of Historic Places by the National Park Service on October 15, 2014:

Listing on the National Register is intended to encourage preservation as well as provide recognition of a property's significance. Listing on the National Register does not place any federal or state government limitations on the property. A major benefit of listing on the National Register is the availability of tax credits for qualified restoration work. The Utah State Historic Preservation Office (SHPO) would be pleased to assist you with the application process should you wish to apply.

Please contact Cory Jensen at the Utah SHPO at 801/245-7242 or by e-mail at coryjensen@utah.gov if you have any questions regarding this listing.
